

MELBOURNE MEDICAL HALL,

COLLINS-STREET.

CORROSIVE Sublimate, Butyr of Antimony, Sheep and Cattle Medicine of every description.

A good assortment of Medicine Chests, for families or for the bush.

February, 1843.

THE UNDERSIGNED

BEGS leave to inform the inhabitants of Port Phillip that he has just received from England a large and valuable supply of Medicines, of every description. He also takes this opportunity of thanking them for their favors to the late firm of R. Wilson and Co., and solicits a continuation of the same for himself.

R. WILSON,

Chemist & Druggist,

Corner of Queen and Collins-streets.

Melbourne, February, 1843.

N.B.—Sole agent in Melbourne for the sale of Sir James Murray's "Fluid of Magnesia."

THE TRADE SUPPLIED IN ANY QUANTITIES.

CLIFTON ESTATE.

THIS beautiful and advantageously situated property, will be let on building leases for a term of years, at a moderate rental.

Particulars may be known on application to G. A. GILBERT, of Brunswick-street, Collingwood.

February, 1843.

BOOKBINDING.

G. COOPER,

From London,

RESPECTFULLY informs the Literati and musical portion of the inhabitants of Australia Felix, that he has removed to the rear of the Bookselling Establishment of Mr. William Ker, jun., Collins-street.

G. C. undertakes to bind, in the most substantial manner, Manuscripts, Music, Law Binding, and other works in every variety of style. Public and private Libraries repaired on the premises if required.

JAMES FULTON,

GUNMAKER, &c.,

BEGB leave to thank the Inhabitants of Melbourne and the vicinity, for the extensive patronage he has already experienced, and takes this opportunity of informing them that he has made a most material reduction in his rate of charges. J. F. thinks it needless to mention that every thing he undertakes will be executed in his best style, which is already well known; and has always on hand a variety of single and double barrelled guns, and every thing in the above line, which he is prepared to dispose of on the lowest possible terms for cash.

To captains of vessels and others—J. Fulton has also prepared a large collection of every description of Birds indigenous to the climate of Australia, stuffed expressly for dispatching home—has still on hand a few beautiful specimens of the “Lyre Bird,” “Menura Superba,” or “Bullen Bullen.”

Collins Street, three doors to the westward of the Port Phillip Bank.

February, 1843.

THOMAS HILL,

WATCH MAKER, JEWELLER, ETC.,

COLLINS STREET,

(THREE DOORS FROM ELIZABETH STREET,)

HAVING made an extensive addition to his stock, in every branch of his business, which to meet the present pressing times, he is selling at unprecedented low prices.

T. H. is prepared to execute all orders in the above branches, having all work done on the premises, and under his own immediate inspection, begs to say, that for moderation in charges, he will defy competition.

N. B.—Mathematical, Optical, and Astronomical Instruments repaired, by a person who has had a long experience in one of the most extensive factories in London.

February, 1843.

J. G. FOXTON,

CUSTOM-HOUSE AND GENERAL SHIPPING AGENT,

CUSTOM-HOUSE, MELBOURNE.

February, 1843.

G. THWAITES & SON,

LATE OF

The Gothic Hall Cabinet Manufactory, NEW ROAD, LONDON,

BEGS most respectfully to invite the attention of the Gentry of Port Phillip to their Manufactory of Cabinet and Upholstery Furniture, where purchasers may depend upon having well manufactured articles, of warranted durability.

Flinders Street, corner of Swanston Street, Melbourne.

February, 1843.

HENRY LINGHAM,

LITHOGRAPHER,

BEGS to acquaint the inhabitants of Port Phillip and the neighbouring Colonies that he executes lithographic work in a superior style to any yet produced in these Colonies, and trusts the patronage he has already received will be continued as his moderate charges warrant him in believing.

Sketches of Gentlemen's Seats, Stations, &c., &c., taken by an Artist for transmission home, on moderate terms.

Any Orders left at W. KER's, Jun., Collins Street, will be promptly attended to.

Melbourne, February, 1843.

