

FARMS TO LET,
IN THE DISTRICT OF WESTBURY.

TO BE LET, for a term of years, to respectable tenants, in 500 acre farms, the Estate of OAKS comprising seven thousand acres, situated in the parishes of Sillwood and Adelphi, on the Liffey Rivulet, a proportionate frontage on which will be allotted to each farm. It is unnecessary to comment on the fertility of this Estate; every acre is available for agricultural purposes. The tenants can purchase from the proprietor sheep and cattle. Possession can be obtained on the 1st April next. Application to be made to Mr. REBEY, Enally, where he will afford all further particulars. October 14th, 1840.

MACQUARIE HOTEL,
MACQUARIE-STREET,
HOBART TOWN,
BY H. S. BENJAMIN.

IN announcing to his Friends and the Public that he has re-opened the above commodious and eligible Premises, H. S. BENJAMIN takes the opportunity of stating, that the House has been entirely

New Furnished Throughout:

In doing which, no expense has been spared, nor any consideration omitted which appeared likely to conduce to the

COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE

Of those Families and Gentlemen who may honor him with their support and patronage. At the same time, wishing to do everything calculated to render the Macquarie

A First-rate Family Hotel,

He has been induced, at a considerable pecuniary sacrifice, to abandon the idea of having either a

TAP OR BILLIARD ROOM,

Connected with the establishment, being aware that the respectability of

A TAVERN

Is materially injured by those adjuncts. Ladies and Families will also find that at the Macquarie, arrangements have been made under the direct inspection of Mrs. Benjamin, who will always attend to this branch personally, not usually met with in an establishment of this kind, by which all the advantages of

A Traveller's Hotel

Are combined with the privacy and retirement of a private house; and as the greatest pains has been taken in the selection of Servants, none having been engaged without the strictest investigation into their ability, character, and habits, it is presumed that Ladies and Families will scarcely feel at the Macquarie, the absence of any

DOMESTIC COMFORTS,

To which they may have been accustomed. In addition to the Hotel, there are conveniences for the entertainment of

Large or Small Parties,

As well as a noble large room, fitted up in the first style, for Public Dinners and other purposes requiring such accommodations; and the engagement of

A PROFESSED COOK

AND EXPERIENCED WAITERS,

Will ensure the utmost comfort to visitors. For the accommodation of gentlemen having business to transact, several small sitting rooms have been set apart exclusively for

PRIVATE USE,

A convenience which has long been acknowledged to be wanting in most of the Hotels in this Colony. Gentlemen from the country may rely upon always finding

Good Stabling

And proper groomage, for which H. S. Benjamin flatters himself he was always distinguished when in business at the Hamilton Inn; and confidently assures those who supported him there, that having at the Macquarie

Greatly Increased Facilities,

His present Establishment will be conducted upon even more liberal terms than his former one.

THE STOCK

Has been selected with care, and will best speak for itself.

In short, the whole arrangements have been completed in a style which, it is confidently hoped, will not fail to give

Entire Satisfaction;

And therefore, with gratitude for past favours, he most respectfully solicits such support as he may be deemed worthy of receiving.

H. S. BENJAMIN.

A table d'Hote daily, at two o'clock.
