MACQUARIE HOTEL,

MACQUARIE-STREET,

HOBART TOWN,

BY H. S. BENJAMIN.

IN announcing to his Friends and the Public that he has re-opened the above commodious and eligible Premises, H. S. BENJAMIN takes the opportunity of stating, that the House has been entirely

New Furnished Throughout:

In doing which, no expense has been spared, nor any consideration omitted which appeared likely to conduce to the

COMFORT AND CONVENIENCE

Of those Families and Gentlemen who may honor him with their support and patronage. At the same time, wishing to do everything calculated to render the Macquarie

A First-rate Family Hotel,

He has been induced, at a considerable pecuniary sacrifice, to abandon the idea of having either a

TAP OR BILLIARD ROOM,

Connected with the establishment, being aware that the respectability of

A TAVERN

Is materially injured by those adjuncts. Ladies and Families will also find that at the Macquarie, arrangements have been made under the direct inspection of Mrs. Benjamin, who will always attend to this branch personally, not usually met with in an establishment of this kind, by which all the advantages of

A Traveller's Hotel

Are combined with the privacy and retirement of a private house; and as the greatest pains has been taken in the selection of Servants, none having been engaged without the strictest investigation into their ability, character, and habits, it is presumed that Ladies and Families will scarcely feel at the Macquarie, the absence of any

DOMESTIC COMFORTS,

To which they may have been accustomed. In addition to the Hotel, there are conveniences for the entertainment of

Large or Small Parties,

As well as a noble large room, fitted up in the first style, for Public Dinners and other purposes requiring such accommodations; and the engagement of

A PROFESSED COOK

AND EXPERIENCED WAITERS, Will ensure the utmost comfort to visitors. For the accommodation of gentlemen having business to transact, several small sitting rooms have been set apart exclusively for

PRIVATE USE,

A convenience which has long been acknowledged to be wanting in most of the Hotels in this Colony. Gentlemen from the country may rely upon always finding

Good Stabling

And proper groomage, for which H. S. Benjamin flatters himself he was always distinguished when in business at the Hamilton Inn; and confidently assures those who supported him there, that having at the Macquarie

Greatly Increased Facilities,

His present Establishment will be conducted upon even more liberal terms than his former one.

THE STOCK

Has been selected with care, and will best speak for itself.

In short, the whole arrangements have been completed in a style which, it is confidently hoped, will not fail to give

Entire Satisfaction;

And therefore, with gratitude for past favours, he most respectfully solicits such support as he may be deemed worthy of receiving.

H. S. BENJAMIN.

A table D'Hote daily, at two o'clock. Macquarie Hotel, Oct. 9, 1840.

Twenty Pounds Reward!!!

HAVING LOST 80 SHEEP lately, and 100 last year; ear marked, tip off each ear, and notch in front of each; fire brand, D on left cheek; pitch mark, D on rump, they are also nose marked; I hereby offer the above reward to any person who will give such information as will lead to the conviction of whoever has stolen them. I would also liberally reward any person giving such credible information, as may serve to fix my attention on the proper parties.
