Valuable and Extensive Farm on the St. Patrick's River.

TO BE SOLD BY PUBLIC AUCTION,
By Mr. J. C. Underwood,

On THURSDAY, the 13th day of April, at half-past one o'clock, at the Royal Exchange Auction Mart, Charles-street, Launceston,

ALL that One Thousand Acres of rich Land, situated on the St. Patrick's River, in Van Diemen's Land, within ten miles of Launceston, late in the occupation of Mr. Kirkby, bounded on the west by St. Patrick's River, on the North by a creek, on the east by unlocated land, and on the south by a creek. The above land was originally located to Alexander Paterson.

A large portion of the Land is in cultivation, and has been drained and subdivided. There are several hundred acres more, fit for agricultural purposes. The greater part of the Farm consists of fine rich marsh land, and could be irrigated at moderate expense. Besides the St. Patrick's River, there are two creeks intersecting the estate, which are never dry. A large amount has been expended in the erection of a commodious dwelling-house, farm-buildings, and fencing. The Farm abounds with lime-stone and freestone.

For further particulars apply at the Office of Messrs. Gleadow and Henty, Solicitors, or to the Auctioneer, Launceston.

Terms will be made known in a future advertisement.
