DENTAL SURGERY.

MONS. AUGUSTE BEURTEAUX, SURGEON DENTIST, (from Paris) respectfully informs the nobility and gentry of Launceston and its vicinity, at the request of several families and gentlemen of distinction, his intention of making only a short stay here.

Having studied several years under the celebrated M. Desirabode, Mons. A. Beurteaux has acquired the art of fixing whole or partial sets of teeth according to the latest improvements; they are guaranteed to answer every purpose of articulation and mastication, and to resemble nature as closely as can be attained by mechanical skill.

Teeth stopped by the celebrated mineral succedaneum. This preparation arrests the progress of decay, and is applied without causing the slightest pain.

Hours of attendance from ten till two o'clock daily. Charles-street, opposite Frederick-street, or Mr. Duchene.

Families attended at their own residence without extra fee. August 30.

WM. TYSON,

BEGS to notify to parents wishing to apprentice a youth to the business of Joiner, &c. that he now requires one: he will be treated as one of the family, and taught geometry in all its applications to his business.
