A PROTESTANT.

SYDNEY NEWS.

Mr. Councillor Flood has been elected alderman of Gipp's ward, in the room of Alderman Owen, retired. A number of bad shillings which are very good imitations, are now in circulation in Sydney.

COMMERCIAL REMARKS.

In the grain market there is very little business doing, most of the small settlers having sold off what they had in hand, whilst those who can afford to keep their grain are holding back on account of the low prices.

IMPOUNDINGS.

At West Maitland, on the 8th of March, by order of Mr. J. Leddam, from the pound padlock—a red bullock, coked horns, branded on the off rump RP; a red and white spotted bullock, branded on the off rump RP; a poley bullock, red sides, back, belly, and tail white, branded on the off rump JR, on ribs same side apparently G or S; a red poley bullock, branded on the off rump G, on same shoulder 3; damages laid on by impounder Gd. each.

At Merton, from Mr. Hungerford's station, Baroma Creek—a bay mare, aged, black points, fifteen hands high, branded C under saddle, C off shoulder. From Mr. G. Daxland's, Wollon Hills—a red and white steer, 4 D near shoulder. If not duly released, they will be sold.

ABSTRACT OF SALES BY AUCTION.

The Sheriff, on the Premises, Wallis Creek, at noon, tanyard, hides, bark, horse, &c. WEDNESDAY.
