

G. O.—Fremantle Jetty is not built of native timber, but of oak saved from a wreck.

IMPATIENT.—Mr. Nairne Clark has abandoned his design of writing the "Memoirs of Western Australia."

P. P.—The publication frequently contains notices of Western Australia; it is published by Simmonds, and Ward, 18, Cornhill, but may be had through any bookseller. See the "Sketch of Western Australia," lately published, and which may be had of Smith, Elder & Co. 65, Cornhill. It has received several important and extensive additions since its original appearance in this journal.

This Company offers the advantages of the guarantee of an ample subscribed capital,—ascending, descending, and other scales of Premiums,—and of participation in profits, at the end of every five years.

To Emigrants to the Australian Colonies, Assured for the whole of Life, the Company offers the permission to proceed to and reside in any of those Colonies without extra Premium, and to pay their Premiums there. For residence in New Zealand, a moderate extra Premium is charged.

In Sydney, a Board of Directors, and agents in all the principal settlements—Bankers in the Colony. The Bank of Australasia (Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1835,) No. 2, Moorgate Street, London.

ANNUITIES.

Annuitants participate in the profits of the Company, and receive a rate of annuity much more favorable than can be granted by any Company making its investments wholly in England. The Company is enabled securely to grant these favorable terms from the advantage it possesses of investing a portion of its funds at a high rate of interest.

INDIA.

Tables of Premiums of Assurances of the lives of officers engaged in civil or in naval or military service in the East Indies and China, may be seen at the Offices of the Company.
