The National Library of Australia Treasures Gallery

In 2008 the National Library of Australia will begin work on a superb new Treasures Gallery. It's time to provide a permanent display space for precious collection items. These might include rare hand-drawn manuscript maps and the latest remote sensing images; pictures ranging from significant colonial paintings to striking contemporary photographs; rich holdings of personal papers and private archives; a vast number of oral history interviews with Australians from many walks of life; and publications in all forms from the earliest hand-printed books to archived websites.

To make a donation to the Treasures Gallery please contact the Development Office on 02 6262 1141 or development@nla.gov.au. You can also send your contribution with the Treasures Gallery donation form.

Your contribution will help bring our finest treasures to life for the whole community.
