

Archiving Web Resources: Issues for Collecting Institutions
Information Day
National Library of Australia
12 November 2004
Program

Facilitator: Margaret Phillips, Director, Digital Archiving, National Library of Australia

Time	Topic	Presenter
9.00 am	Heritrix Crawler	Gordon Mohr Technical Leader, Heritrix Archive Crawler Internet Archive
9.30 am	Nordic Web Archive	Svein Arne Solbakk IT Director National Library of Norway
10.00 am	New Zealand Metadata extractor	Kirsty Smith Digital Archivist, Alexander Turnbull Library National Library of New Zealand
10.30 am	Morning tea
11.00 am	International Internet Preservation Consortium (IIPC) Deep Web Archiving tools	Julien Masanès Conservator & IIPC Coordinator Bibliothèque nationale de France Monica Berko Director, Applications Branch National Library of Australia

12.00 am	Thematic approach to collection building	Martha Anderson Project Manager, Office of Strategic Initiatives Library of Congress
12.30 pm	Lunch
1.30 am	Virtual remote control	Nancy McGovern Digital Preservation Officer Cornell University Library
2.00 pm	STORS: Stable Tasmanian Open Repository Service	Lloyd Sokvitne Manager, Information Systems Development State Library of Tasmania
2.30 pm	Global Digital Format Repository	Stephen Abrams Digital Library Program Manager Harvard University Library
3.00 pm	PRONOM, (an online source for information about file formats and software products)	Adrian Brown Digital Preservation Services Manager UK National Archives
3.15 pm	Afternoon tea
3.45 pm	Xena (XML Electronic Normalising of Archives)	Dr. Andrew Wilson Senior Project Officer, EARWIG National Archives of Australia
4.15 pm	An approach to recoding every materially different response produced by a Web site	Kent Fitch Project Computing and National Library of Australia
4.45 pm	PANDAS (PANDORA Digital Archiving System)	Paul Koerbin Supervisor, Digital Archiving Section National Library of Australia
5.15 pm	Close	