The National Library of Australia

The National Library of Australia is the custodian of our nation's memory. Its remarkable collections tell the story of Australia and our people, history and culture.

The Library's astoundingly diverse collections contain books, newspapers, maps, manuscripts, music, pictures, ephemera, oral history and realia. These collections educate, inspire and delight us all.

Friends of the Library

Support your National Library and make new friends today

Friends of the National Library of Australia share a passion for the Library and its collections. The Friends promote and support the Library and the contribution it makes to our society.

The Library recognises the Friends as an integral part of the Library community and gives the Friends access to the inside story of the Library, its treasures, exhibitions and special programs.

Friends work together to encourage support for the National Library and its wonderful collections and resources.

In recent years, Friends have:

- Presented lectures and events, promoting scholarship and public debate on topical issues
- Gifted artworks for the Library's Reading Room
- Sponsored travelling and creative arts fellowships
- Supported digitisation of various treasures from the Library's collection.

Friends host a varied program of events each year, bringing visitors to the Library to meet like-minded people, explore Library offerings and discover the riches of the collection. Events are held in-person and online.

Friends Benefits

Friends enjoy:

- Invitations to exclusive Friends events, including exhibition previews, special collection viewings, lectures and curator talks
- Access to the private Friends lounge, a space in which to socialise, study and relax with friends, enjoying the heritage furniture and water views
- Quarterly mailing of the Friends newsletter, and regular eNews updates
- Reciprocal benefits at other libraries and selected cultural institutions in Australia.

Friends also enjoy discounted rates for:

- Purchases at the Library Bookshop and at the Library's café, Bookplate
- Hotels and accommodation Australia-wide
- Dining and cultural activities
- Purchases at a range of other businesses.

* Benefits may change over time; an updated list can be found online.
