Love the National Library of Australia? Become a Friend

The National Library develops, curates and preserves an astounding and diverse collection that inspires, delights and educates Australians.

The Library's remarkable collection tells the story of Australia and its people. Its items range from the earliest European works about the Great Southern Land to the most current publications. It includes Australian print and online materials, such as books, maps, newspapers and serials, music and ephemera, manuscripts, pictures and oral histories. The Library also holds overseas materials and rare books, as well as world-class Asian and Pacific collections.

Join the Friends, support the Library and enjoy many benefits:

Friends Lounge

Enjoy the exclusive Friends Lounge with panoramic views of Lake Burley Griffin.

Event Invitations

Be invited to Friends-only events, including white-glove evenings at which you can enjoy a special display of precious items from the Library's collections.

The Friends Newsletter and What's On

Receive complimentary copies of the Friends of the National Library Newsletter and the National Library's What's On guide, both published quarterly.
