SUPPORTING OUR NATIONAL LIBRARY

CELEBRATING OUR NATION'S HERITAGE

THE NATIONAL LIBRARY OF AUSTRALIA

The National Library of Australia is the custodian of our nation's memory. Its remarkable collections tell the story of Australia and our people, history and culture.

The Library's astoundingly diverse collections contain books, newspapers, maps, manuscripts, music, pictures, ephemera, oral history and realia. These collections educate, inspire and delight us all.

For further information about the National Library, visit the website at nla.gov.au or call 02 6262 1111.

Curator Nathan Woolley at the Friends event for the Raising the Red Flag exhibition in the Treasures Gallery.

Friends of the National Library of Australia share a passion for the Library and its collections. The Friends promote and support the Library and the contribution it makes to our society.

The Library recognises the Friends as an integral part of the Library community and gives the Friends access to the inside story of the Library, its treasures, exhibitions and special programs.

SUPPORT YOUR NATIONAL LIBRARY AND MAKE NEW FRIENDS TODAY

Friends work together to encourage support for the National Library and its wonderful collections and resources.

In recent years, Friends have:

- funded the digitisation of the Papers of Jessie Street
- sponsored travelling and creative arts fellowships
- gifted artworks for the Library's Newspapers and Family History Reading Room
- supported the digitisation of The Canberra Times
- presented lectures and events, promoting scholarship and public debate on topical issues.

Friends host a varied program of events each year, bringing visitors to the Library to meet like-minded people, explore Library offerings and discover the riches of the collection.

FRIENDS BENEFITS

Friends enjoy:

- invitations to Friends events, including exhibition previews, collection viewings, lectures and curator talks
- use of the private Friends Lounge, a space in which to work, study and relax with friends, enjoying panoramic views of Lake Burley Griffin
- quarterly Friends Newsletters, seasonal What's On guides and weekly Friends eNews
- reciprocal rights at other libraries and selected cultural institutions in Australia.

Friends also enjoy discounted rates for:

- Library events
- Bookshop purchases at the Library and online
- purchases at the Library's cafes, Bookplate and Paperplate
- purchases at a range of local businesses.

Note: Benefits may change over time; an updated list can be found online.
